St Thomas' is less than half a mile away from Parliament, so will take about ten minutes to walk.

The pedestrian entrance is opposite Belvedere Road and the Accident and Emergency Department is on the Ground Floor of the East Wing.

There is a separate team of children's nurses and doctors for children under the age of 16. Go straight to the separate children's waiting and treatment area. After assessment you will be sent to the waiting room to register. Take a seat and the receptionist will call your name.
